

Society

The class of 1931 of the South Bend High school entertained with a dinner-dance last evening at the Oliver hotel. Dinner was served at 7 o'clock to the members of the class in the Rotary and Turkish rooms, which were attractively decorated with red and green streamers, class banners, lighted Christmas trees and shaded lights. The toastmaster was Alex Thielens. Dancing began at 9 o'clock; 200 guests enjoying the program of dances as played by the original Tokyo orchestra. In charge of the delightful affair were Louis LaPierre, chairman; Basil Greenblatt, Miss Elva Yeagley, Miss Ruth Eastman, Knowles B. Holloway, George Robertson, Jr., Miss Evelyn Shidler, Nelson Bowsher, Walter Langer, Miss Mary Louise Page, Robert M. Appleman and Alex Thielens.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kelley, 219 S. Scott st., entertained with a 7 o'clock dinner last evening at the Hotel LaSalle. Twelve guests were seated at an attractively appointed table, graced with a centerpiece of roses and narcissus. Another dinner at the LaSalle hotel was given by Mrs. John Grief, N. Notre Dame av., who entertained 10 guests at dinner in the Florentine room. The class of 1932 of the Mishawaka High school entertained with a dinner at 8 o'clock covers being placed for 20 members. F. S. Kelley was in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. E. J. Patterson, 410 E. Monroe st., entertained with a 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday, her guests being the members of the Jolly Twelve Birthday club. The table was graced with a centerpiece of roses and narcissus. The afternoon was spent socially and the members exchanged gifts. On Jan. 25, the club will meet with Mrs. E. Moreweiser, 632 Sherman av.

Miss Miriam E. Bailey, 1208 E. Donald st., entertained informally Thursday night honoring the birthday anniversary of Miss Mirth Simon. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock to 10 guests, seated at a table bearing a centerpiece of red roses and greenery.

The St. Joseph Valley Grange entertained with a dance Thursday evening at Beyer hall. Van Hart orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arthur Carls entertained a small company at dinner Thursday evening at 6 o'clock as a courtesy to Mrs. Ralph Weinrichter, of New York City, who is spending several weeks at Carls Manor. An artistic arrangement of pink roses formed the decoration for the dinner table.

The Harmony Reading circle was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stuart Reynolds, 738 Laporte av. The time was spent socially and luncheon was served to six members. In two weeks, the club will meet again, the hostess being Mrs. John Berger, Sixth st., River Park.

Mrs. William Duttrera was elected president of the Nonpareil club which met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Conklin, 224 S. Notre Dame av. Others appointed to office were Mrs. Charles Cronk, vice-president; Mrs. P. O. Brownell, secretary-treasurer. Plans were made for the annual dinner of the club, which will take place at the home of Mrs. E. R. LaHommendie, 213 E. Dayton st. During the social hour, dainty refreshments were served. On Jan. 10, the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Fred Wagner, 759 Lincolnway East.

Mrs. Henry Hamer, 214 W. Thomas st., was hostess to the members of the Victory club Thursday afternoon. Six members were present and in the contests the favors were won by Mrs. John Taylor and Mrs. Ellen Wasm. At the close of the afternoon, dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be announced later.

Honoring her houseguest, Miss Dorothy Shinn of Indianapolis, Miss Virginia Kelley, 219 S. Scott st., entertained Wednesday afternoon at her home. The afternoon was spent informally and luncheon was served to 10 guests at an attractive table bearing decorations suggestive of the holiday season.

The Stitches club met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Clifford Piper, 212 Golden av., for an all-day meeting. Dinner was served at noon and the afternoon was devoted to a business session at which the annual election of officers was held. Mable Sike, was chosen president; Mrs. Anna Hacker, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Fred Weltzien, reporter. On Jan. 10, the club will meet with Mrs. Weltzien, 524 E. Dayton st.

The engagement of Miss Kathleen Campbell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, of Greencastle, Ind., to Hugh A. Barnhart, son of former Congressman Henry A. Barnhart, of Rochester, Ind., was announced Wednesday at a luncheon given by Mrs. Guy Barr at her home on W. Ninth st., Rochester. The places of the 12 guests were marked by corsage bouquets of sweetheart roses and sweet peas to which were attached cards bearing the names of Miss Campbell and Mr. Barnhart. In the bouquet marking the place of Miss Campbell was concealed the engagement ring. Miss Campbell formerly resided in Rochester when her father was pastor of the Grace M. E. church. She is a graduate of DePaul university, a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and for the last two years has been supervisor of music in the schools of Brazil, Ind. Mr. Barnhart, who is well known in South Bend, graduated from Indiana university, a member of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity and served as an officer in the regular army during the World war. He has been publisher of the Rochester Sentinel for three years. The wedding will take place in June at Greencastle.

The marriage of Mrs. Kittle Leeper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leeper, of Metcalf, O., took place at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The service was read at the home of the bride's father, 1205 Leeper av., by Rev. Albert E. Monger, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, in the presence of a few close friends. The bride, who was unattended, wore a traveling suit of black with a small hat of silver lace. Her corsage was of orchids and valley lilies.

Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf left in the evening for Chicago and will be at home after January 15 at 303 16th av., Columbus, O., where Mr. Metcalf is engaged in the practice of

Engagement Announced

Miss Marie Martin, whose engagement to Hartley Anderson was announced Tuesday afternoon at a bridge party given by Miss Martin.

law. He is a graduate of the Ohio State university and is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. Mrs. Metcalf attended The Castle at Tarrytown, N. Y.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served, the table being centered with red and white roses, the decoration of the home being carried out in the colors of the Yuletide.

Miss Mildred Augustine and Miss Annabelle Lickie entertained with an informal tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Augustine, 1215 Riverside dr. The affair, which was given as a courtesy to Miss Florence Irwin, who is attending school at Rochester, N. Y., and her guest, Miss Eleanor Pox of Williamson, N. Y., was attended by 24 guests. Miss Mildred Kersey presided at the tea table, which was centered with holly and lighted with red tapers in silver holders. Miss Ruth Jackson, of Flint, Mich., was another out of town guest.

The marriage of Miss Mary Helen Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lewis, 1104 S. Main st., and Harry C. Hardt, of Albion, Mich., took place Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. G. W. Rench, pastor of the First Brethren church, officiating in the presence of 50 guests. The home was made attractive with

Personals

Sidney Morse, a student at Purdue university, is spending the holiday vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Morse, 1927 California av.

Mrs. C. W. Stamm, 749 Lincolnway E., is the holiday guest of her mother and sister at St. Louis. Miss Mania Horka, 420 N. Francis st., has arrived from Cleveland to spend a few days with her parents here before resuming her work in Chicago. Miss Horka is also entertaining a guest, Miss Antoinette Pernar, a former school mate in Boston, who is at present a vaudeville partner. Before leaving Cleveland, Miss Pernar was hostess to a farewell party given her associates in vaudeville at the Keith's 195th street theater in Cleveland.

Woodson Carlisle is spending the week at Evanston, Ill., attending a house party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Little.

Ralph Weinrichter, of New York City, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Carls, returned east on Tuesday.

Richard Carlisle is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Till at the Edgewater Beach hotel, Chicago. Miss Ruth Leichter, of Lansing, Mich., is the guest of Miss Dorothy Welt, 301 E. Wayne st.

Mrs. Fred L. Dewey and daughter Sarah Ann, of Dowagiac, Mich., are the guests of Mrs. Ella Wilhelm, 708 Forest av.

Miss Helen Shepard of Indianapolis is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Christman, Marquette av.

Mrs. James W. Hyatt left Thursday for New York City where she will be the guest of her niece, Mrs. Arthur West, who formerly was Miss Lucile Harmon, a member of the Zeigfeld Polles.

Miss Helen Shepard of Indianapolis is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Christman, Marquette av.

Mrs. James W. Hyatt left Thursday for New York City where she will be the guest of her niece, Mrs. Arthur West, who formerly was Miss Lucile Harmon, a member of the Zeigfeld Polles.

Mrs. James W. Hyatt left Thursday for New York City where she will be the guest of her niece, Mrs. Arthur West, who formerly was Miss Lucile Harmon, a member of the Zeigfeld Polles.

Revelations of A Wife

By ADELE GARRISON

THE WAY MADGE STROVE TO AVOID HARRY UNDERWOOD.

Only the consciousness that somewhere behind me were the watchful eyes of the three reporters, kept me from a violent start as I caught sight of the tall man who at my approach had suddenly turned away from the head of the stairway and melted into the crowd.

For I instantly had recognized the disguise with which the tall man was invested, and knew at once the identity of the man sporting the white military mustachios and closely-trimmed white beard of an elderly foreigner, and wearing the faultlessly tailored but foreign-looking clothing. Harry Underwood again appeared upon my horizon. And with the knowledge of the watchful eyes behind me, there was no other person of my acquaintance whom I more dreaded to meet. With him in my vicinity, I felt as if I were holding a can of explosives in one hand and a lighted match in the other.

That he had been watching for my appearance at the head of the waiting-room stairway I was sure, and I did not need to exercise my mental powers to greatly deduce the reason for his being there. He had told me that he kept close track of my doings and Dicky's, and he must have read the account of Dicky's escapade in the morning newspapers, and decided that I would take the first train available. His quick avoidance of me meant only a respite. Harry Underwood can do nothing except with a dramatic flourish. I was not only sure that he would join me at some stage of my journey, but that he would endeavor to provide a setting for his appearance which should create mystery and melodrama.

A sudden inspiration. If I could only elude him and the reporters at the same time. I clicked my teeth angrily at the remembrance that my inexperience in city driving had prevented me from making the entire journey by motor, and I mentally resolved that before many weeks had passed I would be able to take my car anywhere. But that resolve did not help me now, and as I walked slowly across the space devoted to hurrying commuters coming and going, I tried to think of some feasible plan.

And then, with a sudden inspiration I wheeled and hurried toward the stairway which leads up from the Long Island station to the taxi entrance. I was tempted to step into a taxi there and be taken directly to the ferry, but I had a psychic little feeling that somewhere behind me Harry Underwood's keen eyes were watching me, and I dodged between taxis across the driveway into the big open space of the Pennsylvania station. I had remembered that from the corridor of the lavatories beneath the second waiting room there is a door leading into the labyrinth of stairways and passages. By these I might reach the Eight av. side of the big building, and with good luck get a taxi unobserved.

"Well Played, Lady Fair!"

Trying to keep my gait a moderate one so that I might not be conspicuous by my haste, I walked through the concourse and the waiting-room and down the steps into the lavatory corridor, and thence up the stairs to the Eighth av. entrance. But there was no empty taxi to be seen, and I realized that I must walk to the corner before getting one.

I cast an apprehensive glance around me, was reassured by seeing no familiar face, and made my way to the corner, where I was instantly accosted by the chorus:

"Taxi, lady? Taxi?"

I selected the man nearest me, and waited until I was in the cab before I gave him the direction. Then in a low tone I told him to take me to the ferry and to hurry. I knew that I could have made much better time to the Jersey terminus of my train by taking the tubes, but I already had decided to wait for a later train to Caldwell or to find some other route to the village than the direct one which I was sure the reporters meant to take.

At the ferry entrance I paid and dismissed the taxi man, walked into the big building and secured my ticket just in time for the opening of the gates.

I went directly to the front of the boat, my favorite spot, one of which I never tire when crossing the river, and exulted over two things—that I was alone, and that I had eluded Harry Underwood.

The boat was moving slowly out of the slip when his voice cautiously low but full of exultant mischief sounded behind me.

"Well played, Lady Fair, but you'll have to get up earlier in the morning to fool your Uncle Dudley."

ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

We are sisters of 18 and 19 years of age. We have been going with two young men for over a year. We care a great deal for them, but in the last three weeks one of them has not called, and the other has called only once. They used to call about three times a week, and 'phone every day. They did not seem angry the last time they called. How can we win them back?

WORRIED SISTERS: Invite the young men to call on you, and ask them frankly what has caused the change in their attitude toward you. This is a privilege of friendship.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl of 17, and am going with a young man of 23. He never takes me to a theater or dance except once a month. He is studying to be a doctor, and working his way, but he always seems to have money. Don't you think that if he really loves me he would show me a better time?

He tells me to have all the dates I want, but is it right for me to go with other men when I love only one? Is not that a further proof that he does not care for me?

ANXIOUS: Your friend is a very sensible, generous young man, my dear, to want you to have other friends. You are engaged to him, and it would be selfish for him to restrict you, no matter how fond he is of you.

Perhaps he cannot afford to spend more money. You should appreciate the attentions he does pay you, for you don't know how even that expenditure may hamper him in his fine effort to educate himself.

ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

We are sisters of 18 and 19 years of age. We have been going with two young men for over a year. We care a great deal for them, but in the last three weeks one of them has not called, and the other has called only once. They used to call about three times a week, and 'phone every day. They did not seem angry the last time they called. How can we win them back?

WORRIED SISTERS: Invite the young men to call on you, and ask them frankly what has caused the change in their attitude toward you. This is a privilege of friendship.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl of 17, and am going with a young man of 23. He never takes me to a theater or dance except once a month. He is studying to be a doctor, and working his way, but he always seems to have money. Don't you think that if he really loves me he would show me a better time?

He tells me to have all the dates I want, but is it right for me to go with other men when I love only one? Is not that a further proof that he does not care for me?

ANXIOUS: Your friend is a very sensible, generous young man, my dear, to want you to have other friends. You are engaged to him, and it would be selfish for him to restrict you, no matter how fond he is of you.

Perhaps he cannot afford to spend more money. You should appreciate the attentions he does pay you, for you don't know how even that expenditure may hamper him in his fine effort to educate himself.

ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

We are sisters of 18 and 19 years of age. We have been going with two young men for over a year. We care a great deal for them, but in the last three weeks one of them has not called, and the other has called only once. They used to call about three times a week, and 'phone every day. They did not seem angry the last time they called. How can we win them back?

WORRIED SISTERS: Invite the young men to call on you, and ask them frankly what has caused the change in their attitude toward you. This is a privilege of friendship.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl of 17, and am going with a young man of 23. He never takes me to a theater or dance except once a month. He is studying to be a doctor, and working his way, but he always seems to have money. Don't you think that if he really loves me he would show me a better time?

He tells me to have all the dates I want, but is it right for me to go with other men when I love only one? Is not that a further proof that he does not care for me?

ANXIOUS: Your friend is a very sensible, generous young man, my dear, to want you to have other friends. You are engaged to him, and it would be selfish for him to restrict you, no matter how fond he is of you.

Perhaps he cannot afford to spend more money. You should appreciate the attentions he does pay you, for you don't know how even that expenditure may hamper him in his fine effort to educate himself.

ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

We are sisters of 18 and 19 years of age. We have been going with two young men for over a year. We care a great deal for them, but in the last three weeks one of them has not called, and the other has called only once. They used to call about three times a week, and 'phone every day. They did not seem angry the last time they called. How can we win them back?

WORRIED SISTERS: Invite the young men to call on you, and ask them frankly what has caused the change in their attitude toward you. This is a privilege of friendship.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl of 17, and am going with a young man of 23. He never takes me to a theater or dance except once a month. He is studying to be a doctor, and working his way, but he always seems to have money. Don't you think that if he really loves me he would show me a better time?

He tells me to have all the dates I want, but is it right for me to go with other men when I love only one? Is not that a further proof that he does not care for me?

ANXIOUS: Your friend is a very sensible, generous young man, my dear, to want you to have other friends. You are engaged to him, and it would be selfish for him to restrict you, no matter how fond he is of you.

Perhaps he cannot afford to spend more money. You should appreciate the attentions he does pay you, for you don't know how even that expenditure may hamper him in his fine effort to educate himself.

ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

We are sisters of 18 and 19 years of age. We have been going with two young men for over a year. We care a great deal for them, but in the last three weeks one of them has not called, and the other has called only once. They used to call about three times a week, and 'phone every day. They did not seem angry the last time they called. How can we win them back?

WORRIED SISTERS: Invite the young men to call on you, and ask them frankly what has caused the change in their attitude toward you. This is a privilege of friendship.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

I am a girl of 17, and am going with a young man of 23. He never takes me to a theater or dance except once a month. He is studying to be a doctor, and working his way, but he always seems to have money. Don't you think that if he really loves me he would show me a better time?

He tells me to have all the dates I want, but is it right for me to go with other men when I love only one? Is not that a further proof that he does not care for me?

ANXIOUS: Your friend is a very sensible, generous young man, my dear, to want you to have other friends. You are engaged to him, and it would be selfish for him to restrict you, no matter how fond he is of you.

Perhaps he cannot afford to spend more money. You should appreciate the attentions he does pay you, for you don't know how even that expenditure may hamper him in his fine effort to educate himself.

ANNIE LAURIE.

DEAR ANNIE LAURIE:

We are sisters of 18 and 19 years of age. We have been going with two young men for over a year. We care a great deal for them, but in the last three weeks one of them has not called, and the other has called only once. They used to call about three times a week, and 'phone every day. They did not seem angry the last time they called. How can we win them back?

The Clearance Sale The Reduction Sale The Change of Management Sales offer Gratifying Savings

Tellsworth's

WOMEN'S 1-4 Off
COATS, SUITS, DRESSES 1-3 Off
BLOUSES, SWEATERS, 1-2 Off
SKIRTS, FURS, MILLINERY

CHILDREN'S 1-4 Off
DRESSES, KNITTED 1-3 Off
WEARABLES, ROBES, 1-2 Off
BONNETS AND SMALLER WEARS COATS

WOMEN'S SHOES Sale Prices
OXFORDS, SLIPPERS, $2.00 Pr.
SHOES to
Half-Price and Less $5.00 Pr.

The Tellsworth Store

High School ALUMNI DANCE
High School Gym
FRIDAY, DEC. 29
Dancing 9-12
Miller-Anderson
7-Piece Orchestra

ADLER BROS.
on Michigan at Washington
since 1884
THE STORE FOR MEN AND BOYS

Union Shoe Company
223 S. Michigan St.

Start the New Year right

Make up your mind you are going to hear the new Victor Records every month. Here are the new ones for January. We are ready to play them for you. Drop in.

ADDRESSES BY THE PRESIDENT

Address at Hoboken (May 23, 1921) President Warren C. Harding 35718 12
Address at Washington (November 12, 1921) President Warren C. Harding 35718 12

POPULAR CONCERT AND OPERATIC

Madoline (E. J. Gill-S. Nelson) Emilio de Gogorza 66103 10
Three O'clock in the Morning (Torris-Robledo) John McCormack 66109 10
Tosca—Vissi d'arte (Love and Music) (Puccini) In Italian Maria Jeriza 66111 10
Mother in Ireland (Griffin-Kahn-Lyman) John McCormack 66112 10
Madame Butterfly—Un bel di (Puccini) In Italian Amelita Galli-Curci 74786 12
Puritani—Ah per sempre (To Me Forever Lost) In Italian Giuseppe de Luca 74787 12
Songs My Mother Taught Me (Dvorak) Geraldine Farrar 87350 10
Romeo and Juliet—Juliet's Waltz Song (Gounod) In French Lucrezia Bori 87351 10

MELODIOUS INSTRUMENTAL

Auccassin and Nicolette (Cannonetta) (F. Kreisler) Violin Solo F. Kreisler 66104 10
Waltz and Elfin Dance (Grieg) Piano Solo Sergei Rachmaninoff 66106 10
March of the Auctioneer (Ippolito-Lyapov) Philadelphia Orchestra 66108 10
Spanish Dance (Granados-Kreisler) Violin Solo Jascha Heifetz 66110 10
Les Preludes—Part 1 (Liszt) Mengelberg and N. Y. Philharmonic Orch. 74780 12
Les Preludes—Part 2 (Liszt) Mengelberg and N. Y. Philharmonic Orch. 74781 12
Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 10 (Liszt) Piano Solo Ignace Jan Paderewski 74788 12
Mazurka March Arthur Pryor's Band 18970 10
Twins in the Month of May—Katinka International Novelty Orchestra 18979 10
Chinese Billikens (from "Chauve-Souris") International Novelty Orch. 18979 10
Piano (No. 4 from "Piano Synchopations") Piano Solo Roy Barge 18969 10
Knice and Kniffy (No. 6 from "Piano Synchopations") Piano Solo Roy Barge 18969 10

LIGHT VOCAL SELECTIONS

Bells the Belle o' Dunoon Sir Harry Lauder 55179 12
The Sunshine of a Bonnie Lassie's Smile Sir Harry Lauder 45331 10
Apple Blossoms Elsie Baker 45332 10
Cupid's Garden Olive Kline 45332 10
'Neath the South Sea Moon (from "Ziegfeld Follies") Lambert Murphy 45332 10
Japanese Moonlight Olive Kline 45332 10
The Hem of His Garment Homer Rodeheaver 18971 10
Better Each Day Homer Rodeheaver-Mrs. William Asher 18975 10
Carry Me Back to My Carolina Home Campbell Burr 18975 10
A Picture Without a Frame Peerless Quartet 18976 10
Lovin' Sam (with The Virginians) Miss Patricia 18976 10
Away Down East in Maine (with The Virginians) Billy Murray-Ed Smalle 18982 10
Homesick Billy Murray-Ed Smalle 18982 10
You Tell Her, I Stutter Billy Murray 18982 10

DANCE RECORDS

A Kiss in the Dark—Med. Waltz (from "Orange Blossoms") (The 18972 10
The Waltz is Made for Love—Med. Waltz (from "The Yankee Princess") (Serenaders 18973 10
All Muddled Up—Fox Trot Zex Confrey and His Orchestra 18973 10
True Blue Sam—Fox Trot Zex Confrey and His Orchestra 18977 10
Sweetheart Lane—Med. Fox Trot (from "Greenwich Village Follies") (Whiteman and 18978 10
The Yankee Princess—Med. Fox Trot (His Orchestra) 18978 10
Kiss Mama, Kiss Papa—Fox Trot The Virginians 18980 10
Choo-choo Blues—Fox Trot The Virginians 18981 10
The World is Waiting for the Sunrise—Med. Fox Trot (The Benson Orch. of Chicago 18981 10
I'm Going to Plant Myself in My Old Plantation Home—Fox Trot Zex Confrey and His Orchestra 18983 10
Swanee Smiles—Fox Trot Zex Confrey and His Orchestra 18983 10
Pack Up Your Sins—Fox Trot (from "Music Box Revue") (Whiteman and 18983 10
Crimoline Days—Fox Trot (from "Music Box Revue") (His Orchestra) 18983 10

George H. Wheelock & Co.

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

SATURDAY, DEC. 30.

This should be a fine day for the renewal of old contracts or agreements, according to the propitious placing of the planets governing affairs of this nature. Mercury, said to rule all writings, publications and bargains or understandings, written as well as verbal, is in trine aspect with Luna, an aspect read as favorable. Those in the employment of others should be careful to attend faithfully to their work. There may be some danger of sorrow or disagreement in the household. A child born on this day will be talented, versatile and successful, but may be personally careless unless well trained.

KILLING ACCIDENTAL.
MADISON, Dec. 28.—(By I. N. S.)—The killing of James Lynaugh, 14, by his cousin, Urban Kelly, was accidental, Coroner Campbell declared today. No inquest is deemed necessary he said.

Kelly was unloading an automatic revolver for the instruction of his cousin when it was accidentally discharged.

Great kindness is better than great talent in making this world a comfortable place to live in.

NO TIME LOST
Send 12c in silver or stamps for our 12-PAGE T-DATE PAID AND WINTER 1932-1933 BOOK OF FASHIONS.

changing glasses when you wear KRYPTOKS
We grind them in our shop.
DR. J. BURKE
Over 20 years in same location
230 S. Michigan St.

changing glasses when you wear KRYPTOKS
We grind them in our shop.
DR. J. BURKE
Over 20 years in same location
230 S. Michigan St.